Clive James joins Kane team

Kane announces appointment of Clive James

Kane Group, a leading provider of specialist risk and insurance management services, has today announced that Clive James has joined the company as a Consultant. Based in Guernsey, he will play an advisory role in facilitating the development of Kane Group's operations in Europe and the Middle East through their offices in Guernsey, London, Bahrain and Dubai.

Clive brings over 20 years of insurance management expertise to the position and has a proven track record in strategic and long-term planning with a focus on business development, financial planning and business efficiency.

Most recently Group Managing Director at Aon Global Insurance Managers, Clive held a number of senior management positions at Aon, having joined the organisation in 1986. Prior to this, he was involved in project management at Crown Financial Services and Providence Capital. Clive began his insurance career at Windsor Life Assurance in 1979.

Commenting on the announcement, Stephen May, Chief Executive Officer of Kane Group, said: "We are delighted to welcome Clive to Kane. He has achieved global recognition as a leading figure in the insurance management arena and his appointment further bolsters our team of world-class industry practitioners. Kane's success to date is founded upon the dedication, passion and innovative spirit of our staff and we will continue to drive this success by selecting those professionals who are committed to these principles."

Speaking about his consultancy role, Clive said: "I am excited to be joining Kane in an advisory capacity at this time. It is clear that the Group is at a key stage in its development, having brought together a highly skilled and experienced team of professionals, and established a strong presence in its target markets. I am looking forward to working with this elite team and playing an active role in the ongoing success of Kane."
